

“An Unfinished Love”

- A tragedy of ‘Love’ which never ended by left the heartfelt and beautiful memories behind.

In the vast curtains of Ace's experiences of life, there exists a bittersweet chapter (memory) which refuses to fade away and that transcend time. Memories which are marked not by their conclusion, but by the lingering echoes of unfilled affection. “An Unfinished Love” is an exploration of one such memories of his life, where his heart fell for someone really special after so many years but where, he could not express my inner feelings that got locked away in the depts of my being.

Within the pages of this book, it is a narrative that traverses the corridors of time, unveiling the layers of emotions that accompanied my encounter with a love that could never find its resolution. Through each turn of the page, you will encounter the feeling of hidden desires, the wistful yearning for a connection that was destined to remain unrealized.

“An Unfinished Love” is a tale of missed opportunities and unspoken confessions. Within the rawness of these recollections lies the profound realization that sometimes, the unexpressed emotions carried within us leave the deepest impact on our souls.

Welcome to “An Unfinished Love”: - a heartfelt memory where the loving never gets ended despite the maturity of time and age. Where the words remain unspoken deep inside the heart.

“An Unfinished Love: Your presence in my life and the impact you had on my heart will always be treasured.”

Chapter - I

An Unconditional Meet. A feel of real Love.

In the northernmost part of a beautiful country, where the high Himalayas reside in between the little village. The first glimpse of her shining face with a beautiful soul. Where the possibility of ACE, falling in love was slim. He fell for her at the first glimpse. This is the tale of 'An Unfinished Love', where destiny weaved its intricate threads in the most unexpected way.

The story or rather I would like to say a one-sided tale of Ace's life begins on a warm spring day. I referred one-sided because the story of Volume-1 might end up without proper confirmation of the confession from the other side.

After some cleansing of face, Ace eye were caught by a beautiful face with a bright, captivating smile. In that moment, time seemed to stand still as Ace gazed upon this person who had unknowingly become the center of his world. The presence igniting a spark within him that he couldn't ignore.

In the same day that followed, the name of this captivating soul later discovered to be -AURORA. Within her presence, Ace found himself believing in the profound magic of love. Aurora embodied the very essence of love in Ace eyes, inspiring him to cherish fragments of their unfinished story.

[Chapter-I captures the essence of that unconditional meet, where the first seeds of love were sown in Ace's heart.]

Chapter - II

The Moon that shines on the night which resembles your beautiful Soul.

As the mysteries carries on between the unconditional love of Aurora and Ace. Under the moon's enchanting glow, Ace's connection with Aurora deepened. The moon began to reflect the ethereal qualities of Aurora's soul and each moonbeam whispered secrets of devotion, igniting hope within Ace's heart. The moon became a symbol, casting its gentle light upon the pages of their unfinished story.

In the moonlit nights, Ace's heart danced to the rhythm of longing and hope. Yet, even as the moon showered its ethereal light upon Ace's path, the unanswered question persisted. The moon, like the love, remained an enigmatic presence, casting its glow upon the unfinished chapters of their story.

The casting glow of moon plays the mystical connection of Ace, through a symbolic representation of his deep affection for Aurora. Within the moon's luminous embrace, Ace seeks solace inspiration and a glimmer of hope for the realization of his love.

[Chapter-II expands the emotional significance of the Moon in Ace's journey.]

Chapter - III

The long stairs between Ace and Aurora which was never stepped forward by both of them.

Despite the Ace's longing efforts, a long endless barrier seemed to stand between him and Aurora. It symbolized the unspoken fears and uncertainties that held them captive preventing their love from blossoming.

With every passing day, the distance between them seemed to widen, leaving their hearts in a state of longing and unfulfilled potential. Ace required immense courage to step forward on the long path of love which made him freeze in a perpetual state of hesitation.

Within the depths of their shared longing, the staircase stands as a formidable obstacle, challenging them to confront their deepest emotions and break free from the shackles of uncertainty. As both of them stand at the foot of the staircase, the weight of their unfulfilled love becomes ever more palpable, igniting a relentless determination to overcome the barriers and create a path of love that knows no bounds.

[Chapter-III explores the stage of Ace's story where the stairs went on different paths away from his life.]

Chapter - IV

The truthful love for Aurora which Ace could show was unable to be confessed.

The depths of Ace's love for Aurora were boundless, yet the words to confess his feelings avoided him. Despite the longing in his heart, he found himself unable to utter the words that would reveal the depth of his love for her.

Every moment spent in her presence was an evidence to the intensity of his emotions. Each moments, smile, glance and interaction filled his soul with an overwhelming sense of devotion. Yet, the fear of rejection and the uncertainty of her response held him back to reveal the truth resided within him.

Ace desired for the courage to speak his heart's truth, to let her know the extent of his love for Aurora. But the risk of losing what we had restrained him, leaving my confession unspoken and their love story unfinished.

He found solace in the memories they shared in the moments where their connection spoke volumes even without words. But deep down, he knew that the truth of his love will remain hidden, locked within the doors of his heart, forever longing to be set free.

[Chapter-IV explores the situation where the love bound to be expressed remained hidden, locked inside his heart.]

Chapter - V

The multiple choices which Ace didn't care, all he cared was Aurora in his life.

Amidst an ocean of choice and paths that lay before him, Ace remained faithful in his devotion to Aurora. The attraction of other possibilities paled in comparison to the profound connection he shared with her.

Even when the world presented him with numerous options, Ace's heart only had room for Aurora. It was as if all other choices faded by the radiant presence of Aurora in his life. His heart recognized that the true essence of fulfillment resided in the deep bond they shared, and he was willing to forego other choices to prioritize their love.

As Ace walked his path, he chooses to follow the one that led him closer to Aurora, disregarding the diverging roads that were there to lure him away. The joy and fulfillment he found in the presence of his beloved Aurora, there were no any alternative choice left to be compared.

Ace's unwavering commitment to Aurora painted a vivid picture of devotion, demonstrating that true love can transcend the multiple choice and find solace in the embrace of a cherished soulmate.

[Chapter-V explores the situation where all the other distractions were faded away by the devotion of Ace love towards Aurora.]

Overall out of more than 8 Billion population living in the world. Among them there lived, Ace. All the above-mentioned chapters were few of the many thoughts and love cycle of Ace's life. He seems to be kind of guy who have unique traits in life. And this is the story of that unique traits guy Ace and his unfinished love with Aurora.

Date: 16th Sept. 2064.

41 years old Ace, is now married and have two children one son-15 years old and one daughter-10 years old. Ace is living a happy and wonderful life with his children and wife at Almos, Nephon.

Life was going smooth as usual but one day, Ace suddenly collapsed while getting down from stairs inside his house. His wife, she called an Ambulance and carried Ace along with her towards hospital.

Inside Hospital:

Ace's wife was sitting beside him. Meanwhile, Ace was lying in the bed of the hospital ward. Suddenly, Doctor got inside and called her.

(Ace's wife having conversation with Doctor.)

Doctor: Excuse me! Are you Mr. Ace's wife?

His wife: Yes. Doctor.

Doctor: I am sorry to say but your husband, he doesn't have much time left. Roughly, we could say almost like 1 month.

His wife: How's that possible? He was all active and healthy till yesterday and till now he hasn't had any sorts of medicine of any kinds.

Doctor: It's not whether he was active or healthy till yesterday or some time before. (Looking at the report) I am simply saying from what we got from report after his whole-body examination. The reason why he fell from the stairs is because his heart stopped working suddenly for some seconds.

His wife: (Shakily, with tears) And how does it connect from with his living life only of one month.

Doctor: It's the maximum which I am guessing from the report. His Heart, it is slowly stopping to function properly. And you have to bear with it.

His wife: (Starts crying looking at Ace's room.) I I I can't believe of Ace dying so early. It might be false report. You you you might be lying me Doctor.

Doctor: It's not a subject of something where I can lie easily. I understand your situation. Gather some courage. Mrs. Ace (a formal way of calling Ace's wife. Since, he doesn't know her name.) I have written all the medications which can help extend his life a little bit. But I can't say upto which extent.

His wife: O..... Oka..... Okay. Doctor. When can I take him home then?

Doctor: Won't you tell him about his situation?

His wife: I don't have courage now. I will when I reach home with him.

Doctor: You can take him after few hours.

His wife: Thank You. Doctor.

Later what his wife didn't know was Ace could hear their words properly and clearly. Because the walls of the Hospital were thin and the door was open.

[After few hours]

Ace and His wife return back home.

Ace: (In an unknown way) So, what did the Doctor mentioned about my current health situation.

His wife: Nothing to be afraid of. Just a normal faint. I have got some medicine for 1 month which you have to eat from today.

Ace: Oh! I am not surprised. But why are you lying. I heard every single conversation between you and the doctor.

His wife: (crying) A .. A..... Ace. Wh... What could I say, I am not able to say anything right now? I am at shock after hearing from what the doctor said earlier.

Ace: I can understand clearly about your concern. But you can't lose hope like this. And By the way, I don't want this information to be leaked outside. I don't want our long-struggled Business to go down just because of my health. I would like it to be suspense.

[At this point Ace, he is the founder of a multi-level business and the most successful businessman of his country. Along with that he is also a novelist.]

His wife: Upto how many days I can make it un-noticed.

When you are the founder of the company and I am the CEO.

Ace: No need to worry, it's not that I can't walk. I will be doing what I can from here from now on. And you must handle the things outside. And during the meantime, I will prepare some plans.

His wife: I can't say anything. It's all upto you, Ace. All I can is to make sure you get the time so that you can make a master plan before it's too late. For now, I will just act as you say.

Ace: Thank you for understanding.

Date: 23rd Sept. 2064

[One week gets passed. Ace is in better condition now. Thanks to the medicine prescribed by the doctor. But who knows what awaits sooner or later in his life.]

Ace speaking within himself:

It's been a week now. And I am recovering faster than expected. But I shouldn't get happy on that. It is sooner or later; the day will arrive when I have to say goodbye to my wife and my beloved children's. Buddha! What is this? I worshipped you every day and this is the blessing that you are calling me this early. I know you fulfilled all of my dreams. I wanted to spend a bit more of my life watching my children's growing in front of my eyes. I was getting that wish fulfilled along with lots of blessings but I never thought that I have to say them goodbye, this early. But I guess I can't do anything. Maybe there is a reason for this. And within that mean time I have to find the successor for my business also. How am I gonna do this? I better would have retired early at the age of 40. My wife, she is capable of being the founder and CEO will be someone from within the group after me but the main question will arise 'who is the co-founder of the company?'. Whom I had kept hidden all this time.

[While Ace was thinking. In the mean-time, another heart fail occurred. And Ace collapse.]

Waking up at the Hospital.

Ace: Where am I? If I remember correctly, I was thinking while sitting at the balcony.

His wife: (Seeing Ace waking up.) (Sobbing) Oh! A....
A..... Ace what on Earth happened to you?

Ace: I am fine. Nothing has happened to me. By the way, where am I?

His wife: You were collapsed at the balcony. Our son, he saw you on the floor of the balcony and called me.

Ace: Oh! I see. Another great invitation from Lord Buddha.... Hahahaaaa.

His wife: How could you laugh at this situation?

Ace: What should I do, then? Should I also cry along with you. Where is our son?

His wife: He went back home.

[Meanwhile Dr. Ben enters]

Dr. Ben: Good to see you again. Mr. Ace.

Ace: Oh! No need for formality. Since, you are my friend. Ben.

[Both Ben and Ace are friends. Since childhood. And Ben is the head of the Hospital, where Ace is now being treated.]

Dr. Ben: I heard about your health. Last time, when you were bought here, I was on a vacation trip. Since, I wanted to have some fresh air.

Ace: No problem. Your staff Doctor took good care of me. And what is the good news this time? Should I ask you here or will you come by my house.

Dr. Ben: Let's talk about this at your house, Ace.

Ace: Okay, Alright! Meet me at noon. I will make some arrangement for you.

Dr. Ben: Okay, if you say so.

[Both Ace and His wife returned back home.]

His wife: This time it was critical, Ace. And all the major members of our company have known about it.

Ace: No need to worry. Afterall, all of them, the major members are my friends. Tell them to meet me tomorrow for discussion.

His wife: You don't know. How furious they were to meet you as soon as they heard about you.

Ace: Tell them not to worry. I will get some rest now.

[Ace lies on bed for rest.]

[After some hours. Time: 1600 P.M. Dr. Ben, he arrives.]

His wife: Oh! Dr. Ben. You came earlier than expected.

Dr. Ben: Greetings. No problem. There is nothing such as early or late, when meeting a friend. By the way, where is he?

His wife: Greetings. He is inside his room. You can go there.

[On the way towards Ace's room. Dr. Ben saw Ace's son reading.]

Dr. Ben: Hello! Lucas. Look, who is here? [Lucas is Ace's son name.]

Lucas: Oh! Hello. Uncle Ben. Greetings. Nice to meet you.

Dr. Ben: Let me see, what are you reading?

Lucas: It's not much special, uncle Ben. It's one of Dad's secret novel.

Dr. Ben: Which one? Is there any novel which I haven't read of him?

Lucas: It's one of the chapters of his novel which I specially printed, I guess you haven't read it yet since, it was never published. and it's

-THE MEMORIES WHICH WERE UNFORGETTABLE.-

Dr. Ben: Oh! I see. Do you know the reason, why it hasn't been published yet? And why did you just special printed that one chapter only?

Lucas: I just feel so much emotional while reading this chapter. It feels like I am the main character inside the chapter. I feel so touched with that. And about it not being published is. When I asked him, he replied it won't get published since it's special edition. And only a few will be allowed to read.

Dr. Ben: Oh! Is it that much special that a 15 years old boy like you also feel attached towards it?

Lucas: Yes. Uncle Ben. You can it read once. I can guarantee, you are going to love it.

Dr. Ben: I will some other time. By the way where is your father? Can you take me where he is?

Lucas: Sure! Uncle Ben. I will take you there. He should be inside his room.

[Lucas and Dr. Ben both head towards Ace's room. They got inside. Ace was looking outside the window.]

Lucas: Dad. Look who is here?

Ace: Oh! Lucas so rare to see you at this time. Did you come home early today?

Lucas: Yes Dad.

Dr. Ben: What's up, Ace? And what's with the commotion of looking outside the window?

Ace: Nothing much, Ben. Just wandering. Oh! Lucas can you go outside for a while Uncle Ben and I have some business to do.

Lucas: Okay, Dad. See you, Uncle Ben.

Dr. Ben: Okay, see you again Lucas.

[Lucas got out of the room.]

Dr. Ben: Now, let's get into the topic.

Ace: What's it this time, Ben? I guess it is serious now. How much time do I have now?

Dr. Ben: With all that medication and all. Roughly I would say 1 week in maximum.

Ace: Oh! I see. Did you tell my wife about it?

Dr. Ben: No. I haven't till now. I think I should not tell her this time.

Ace: That's good I should say. I was gonna request you to the same thing.

Dr. Ben: What about others? The other top board members of the company our friends.

Ace: About that, I told my wife to call them tomorrow morning. Since you are one of them. You are a must to come.

Dr. Ben: Oh! I see. Okay. For now, take rest Ace. I will see you tomorrow.

Ace: Okay, Ben. See you tomorrow.

Dr. Ben: (with eyes covered with tears.) I never guessed that you were gonna be the first one to leave us. After all, you are the mastermind in our success.

Ace: Who knew? I will be the one to leave you all early. Maybe it's all plan of Lord Buddha.

Dr. Ben: I have to go now Ace. I have some others works pending. Will meet you tomorrow.

[Dr. Ben walks out of the room. At the same time Ace's wife, she enters]

His wife: Why did Dr. Ben left early? Did something happen? I was making some breakfast ready for him.

Ace: Nothing much. He said he have some works pending so, he left early.

His wife: Did you call Ben for tomorrow's meeting with the members. Since, he is one of them?

Ace: Yes! I called him. He will be coming tomorrow.

Date: 24th Sept. 2064, Morning 0800 A.M.

[All the top members of the company they gathered. There are 7 members in total. Although, they are friends and most important members of the company. They had never gathered for anything outside the company for some meetings like this. Even when they meet they never discussed about the company matters outside the room of the company. In the face of the country Ace and his wife are the only two people who are known publicly. About the other members no one knew about them even their family members. Except seven of them. All of their family thinks they are just childhood friends and gather just to have fun and spent time with each other. Whenever they gather, they meet like normal people just the way they used to gather back in their childhood, without cars, without security, without any outer tension and all. In sum you can say they were brothers from different mothers.

Ace - Founder

His wife - C.E.O

Top Executives.

Dr. Ben - Doctor and Head of Carbon Medical Hospital.

Er. Arthur - Engineer and Head of Er.A House Design Pvt. Ltd.

Norgen - Singer and Dancer.

Jackson - Film director and Author.

Robert - Financial expert and Auditor.

Hence the meeting, it begins.]

Ace: What's up, Guys.

All in single voice: Nothing much. All bad.

Norgen: But I never expected us to meet like this at your house.

[Along with Norgen]

Robert: After all, whenever we met, we used to meet in the villa bought by all of us together.

Ben: Damn you, all of you idiots. The villa was bought so that we all could gather and enjoy together with all of us, together with our family members. Not for a situation like this.

Jackson: Yes, Ben is absolutely right. I totally agree with him.

Arthur: Can you all stop the commotion for a while. Do you all understand how serious the situation is right now. Didn't you hear it from Ben yesterday.

[All of them gets silent.]

Arthur: Don't you have anything to say Ace.

Ace: The delayed time it arrived.....

[Interrupting in the middle while Ace was explaining.]

Arthur: Stop that novelist way of explaining. Talk normal. You don't have much time. Who knows you might collapse at the middle of explanation. Make it short and clear.

Ace's wife: What do you mean? He doesn't have much time. What are you talking about?

Ben: Well about that. It's only a matter of week and Ace will be no more with us.

Arthur: Thanks Ben for saying that. If I had said that than it would have sound a bit rude.

Ace's wife: (In despair) Oh! I should have at least expected that when you arrived home yesterday to meet Ace.

Ace: Let's end this topic for a while and get onto the main one for which we all have gathered here.

[All shaking their head, -hint of approval]

Ace: This is the real plan now.

Robert: At this last stage you came up with a plan. As expected from you.

Ace: After my death,

[Interrupting in the middle]

Ace's wife: Don't start saying death already. It makes me lose hope.

Ace: Listen carefully, it's no more about losing hope. It's about the dream we all had and how it will survive even when I die. I have proper hope and I believe in all of you.

Robert: Then, let's get started.

Ben: It must not make us all sad.

Jackson: Don't worry about that, Ben. After all, he is the mastermind behind all of our success.

Ace: Don't make me flatter now saying those words. After my death, the founder will be my wife. And the part of CEO will be fulfilled by one of us here besides me. About that, you all will discuss and make the decision. I will make my wife make the necessary arrangement. And about Co-founder, the person is someone you all never heard of. For your clarification, the person is female. I know well about her and my wife also knows well about her. She will get know her name when time comes. When Lucas, reaches 20 years of age, she will come inside the company for the first time after my death. And if Lucas is seen fit of being the Co-founder, she will make him Co-founder and disappears just like the dust in the wind. If not seen fit, she has accepted to make him capable for that post and she will be in the company for that time period.

[All of them gets surprised.]

Ace's wife: Who is she, Ace? Can't you tell us now?

Ace: No. You know her properly. You can speak with her when the day arrives.

Jackson: (Angrily) Oh! Brilliant Ace. You had someone as Co-founder and we don't even know about that till now.

Ben: Don't make a fuss, Jackson. There might be reasons for that.

Arthur: Even so, he could have told us at least.

Ace: And about the plans and ideas for next 5 years, I have mailed all of you with proper documentation and presentation. Read that all and execute in the way as it shows. Don't worry after 5 years, she is someone who is far more intelligent and expert than me.

Ben: If you say so than we all agree on you. Is it ok or not guys?

[All in single voice. Okay.]

Robert: It's Okay. But still Ace. It's a bit awkward. For someone to show up out of nowhere and to be recognized as the Co-founder of the company.

Ace: I see no problem there about that, Robert.

Jackson: Okay, then let's end this topic here. And since it might be the last day where we all gather together like this. Let's enjoy a bit in the great memories of our friend and the mastermind Ace.

Ace's wife: You all enjoy but I can't hear this all anymore. I am devastated hearing all of this.

[And like that all of them enjoyed the moment and shared all their childhood memories and dreams together.]

Ben: Ace, about that person, the Co-founder. Do I know her?

Ace: Yes, of course Ben you know her. Her name is Aurora.

[And it was where her name was first mentioned by Ace after so many decades.]

Ben: Oh! So, it's her. You are truly a mastermind Ace.

[Everyone calling Ben and Ace]

Ace: You guys carry on. I have some words with Ben here as a Doctor for one last time.

Ace: But don't tell this to anyone. My wife will get mad or sad, after hearing that I don't know. So, I didn't tell her name. Oh, and on this topic remember I told you she used to be my crush back then. The one to whom I was unable to express a single bit of my feelings back then.

Ben: Why not after all, for so many years you used to talk about her so much. But, I never knew the reason why you didn't marry her. You never told me the reason.

Ace: It's simple Ben. I can't keep on chasing a wind which I can never grasp after all.

Ben: You and your reasons. It's always complicated.

Ace: Now that, I completed all my dreams, wishes. At last,
I have one last wish left which I remember recently.

Ben: And what's that? In my guess, don't tell me you are going to write a novel about you and Aurora.

Ace: Yes, you guessed it right Ben. It's about me and Aurora. And

"An Unfinished Love"

Ben: You already set the name also.

Ace: I have one request, I don't know whether I might be able to complete this novel or not, but when Lucas turns 20 years old. Tell him to read this novel.

Ben: Why 20 years of age?

Ace: About that I don't know. Just a hint from Lord Buddha, I guess. It will be specially locked on my PC.
And about the password: you-know-i-know.

Ben: Oh, I know I know.

Ace: The work will start from tomorrow. Let no one disturb me. It's on you. Even my wife and my children's.

Ben: Leave it to me. Also, I am eager to read that.

[Like that the night passed. They all enjoyed whole day and night. Everyone left to their respective house with full of heavy heart and joy. Since, they promised not to tell their family members that Ace was gonna die soon. Dr. Ben, he stayed back.]

Date: 25th Sept. 2064

Time: 1000 A.M. Morning. After having meal.

Ace: Ben, don't forget what I said yesterday. Better keep up to those words.

Dr. Ben: Leave it to me, Ace.

[Ace enters the room]

Hence, the start of the novel

:An Unfinished Love:

Ace speaking within himself:
Looking at the date.

Oh! I guess it's the same day when I had the realization occurred. It was kinda nice and mesmerizing moment back then. It's already been decades now. It was when I was 25 years old. How could I forget that since, it was 4 years long one-sided love? I wonder how I was able to love her for 4 years long but still can't make her mine. I almost cried before making the bold decision. It was a heartbreaking moment for me. We haven't spoken with each other for ages now. I was expecting to see her at least once in my life. Before this day to occur, but I never got to see her and all I could was speak on phone and make her Co-founder of the company until my son is 20 years old. I never thought I will be writing something related to me and her. I guess this is going to be emotional for me.

Soon the beginning of "An Unfinished Love."

[Being lost in his thoughts Ace starts writing about the Unfinished Love of his life. Time flowed back to when he was 30 years old, and when he had last conversation with Aurora.]

Part 0

Date: 25th Sept. 2053. Time: 2010 P.M.

At the beginning of the night. I went on the roof top of my house for some fresh air after rainfall. It wasn't the same year but it was the same day when we both had conversation for last time. Before I made her Co-founder of the company.

[With a couple of beers on his hand]

Oh! I have got some beer. Let's open one of them. To foster up the courage to call Aurora. I would like to speak one last time with her. I worship that she hasn't change the no. till now. After 15 minutes of struggle. While sobbing a little bit flowing on emotions, I called her.

Ace: Oh! She finally picked up the phone I guess.

Aurora: Hello, who's this?

Ace: Hello, Aurora. My guess was right. You never saved my number. It's me Ace.

Aurora: Why did you call me at this hour? And on top of that I am a married person now. It took you long to call me, Ace.

Ace: Oh, congratulations. Nothing much. I haven't spoken with you for years now. I have one request to say before we become one complete stranger now.

Aurora: What's with the commotion all of a sudden? And what's with that one request?

Ace: I saw a dream, where soon I might die, I strongly believe it's gonna be true.

Aurora: What are you saying all of a sudden? You will die soon.

Ace: Listen carefully, since this is going to be the last time when we both are gonna speak with each other. Before that, kindly do one work for me. As you hinted, I stopped chasing your love in return. I finally made up my mind and got married at 26 years of age. I have a son of 4 years now. I would like to see him becoming a fine person in future.

Aurora: Oh, finally. I knew, you used to love me back then. And it's the dream of every dad to see their son being successful.

Ace: And about the request. I am a founder of a well renowned company now. I wanted to make my son the Co-founder, when he was going to reach 20 years of age. But, I guess I am not gonna see him becoming the Co-founder and instead of that I want to make you the Co-founder.

Aurora: (Being surprised) Whattttt? No, why would I become the Co-founder?

Ace: Listen, Aurora I never requested you anything. Just do this one thing for me. When he reaches 20 years of age, make him the Co-founder and disappear just like you never were the Co-founder of the company.

Aurora: It's a bit impossible but since back then, you said your dreams become true in reality. And you rarely have any dreams while sleeping. I will help you on this.

Ace: Thank you, Aurora. I knew you will not reject me.

Aurora: So, tell me the details about your son. When he is going to be 20 years of age.

[And just like that I shared every detail and all the paper works. That was the last time I spoke with her. After that we never saw or spoke with each other.

After being lost in the moment. Ace started to go back on time and recall all the past memories shared between both of them. It was like a reverse in time for Ace.]

Date: 25th Sept. 2048. Time: 2200 P.M.

The year of realization. Current age: 25 years.

The day when all the love cycle of me and Aurora remained closed and unfinished. Right now, I don't know anything about Aurora. We both have stopped meeting and speaking with each other for months now.

Part 0.5

That was the month of the year, when I made the bold decision. The decision of stopping the chase of pursuing Aurora's love and affection. It was seen clearly from the side of Aurora but it was never expressed in words. I never got to know the reason but I guess it was something greater. Right now, I think that it was unexpressed for the sake of both of us.

Many months have been passed now from the day on which I had seen Aurora and the beginning of my unfinished and unwavering love.

It was the year 2043 from when the story had started. Up until then the amount of love which I had for Aurora is still the same rather it increases more and more every year. Even now it's not that I have completely forgotten about Aurora. The moments and memories are still fresh in my mind.

Part -1

Life. It might seem ordinary. Which most of the people think consists of 4 letters, creating one word. In the same way about love, people describe the word Love, in a universally, different way. They see them on a whole another level. Actually, they compare Love as more powerful and more important than Life. Life consists of many words and sentences like that and Love is one of them. I know it plays a vital role in whether one's life goes smoothly or one's life ends haphazardly. In the development of human race, many people used Love in different ways.

Meanwhile, in my life, Love played a vital role to complete the circle of my Life. I would say. The circle of life rotates. With every small arc of circle, there are many chapters, which means failure, success, struggle, happiness, sorrow, memories and so on. Some of the chapter had taught their lessons and ended nicely. Some were still going on with the flow of life. All phases of life that got started have to end someday. It might be early or late. It might be painful or full of happiness. On that topic no one knows. How Life will end. In my case, it was painful and heartbreaking at first and success and happiness at last. And at one of the chapters. My life, it was dedicated and destined to meet Aurora, but never meant to last forever till the death of my life. I wonder how my life would have ended, if we both were together? I never had the courage to ask about that towards her and it remained unknown till now. And I guess it will never be answered in my life ever again.

Part -2

THE BEGINNING OF UNFINISHED LOVE STORY.

Likewise, there were a lot of chapters that were still in the ongoing phase of my life. Before I knew a new chapter had already started in my life with an unimagined ending.

I was a teenager back then.

After a long-traveled journey on the way to the Himalayas. It was my first visit in the Himalayas and I was there for a special occasion. But, who knows there was something special awaiting for me also. It was gonna be the first meet between me and Aurora.

I reached the village at night. The occasion had already started. After having some light meal at home, I went back to the place where occasion was held. A bunch of people were dancing, singing and enjoying the moment there. I met some of my relatives along with my grandfather, who had come along with me. It was a beautiful night with clear sky and fresh air of the Himalayas. After some drinks, I went for dancing along with the flow. Although I am not a good dancer but I rarely and barely like to dance when I drink. There I saw the first glimpse of Aurora's smile and her face. Before I could get close and see her in front of him, she disappeared in between the mass of people.

I searched for a while. I was unable to find her again. I left it to fate to meet her again now. Again, I went for dancing. After few hours I returned home with my grandfather.

Part -3

After getting light sleep of few hours. Since, I had returned home late from occasion. I was wondering whether I could be able to see her again. It was for the first time in years I guess, since I had the urge to see someone so badly. I barely remembered her face because it was dark at night and the lights were not that bright, which were unable to make me see her face clearly. After cleansing my face with the water. It was an unexpected moment and time but, I actually saw the spark of the same smile which I had seen during the night.

At that certain time, I actually thanked fate but who knew that thanking towards fate won't last for whole life.

Ace: (Thinking) I wonder how she would looked like if I had seen her early in the morning today. Yesterday, I was a bit drunk and all I could see was a glimpse of her smile.

[Starts cleansing his face with the water he carried in his hands from tap.]

[On my way thinking about her all along while cleaning my face. I saw the smile once again which I had seen that night. I got carried away with the flow of the smile without even realizing, I was in front of her.]

Aurora: Excuse me! Do I know you by any chance? Since you are up so close towards me.

[After realizing and with the sudden response.]

Ace: Oh! I am sorry. I got carried away with that smile of yours and this is the first time you have seen me I guess.

Aurora: Oh! And do you mean that you have already seen me before or what? Never seen you around and I don't think you are from somewhere around here.

Ace: Yes, I have seen you before.

Aurora: Even if that's the case, will you kindly please move a little bit because I am feeling a little bit uncomfortable.

[Everyone started staring at my behavior since it was a bit disturbing for everyone else present there. I backed off a little with a charm of smile.]

Ace: Hello! I am Ace by the way. It would be so kind of you if by any chance I might know your name?

Aurora: Hello! Mr. Ace. Nice to meet you. My name is Aurora.

[Thinking] What a nice name for such a beautiful person. Thanking god from inside.

Ace: Oh, my such a nice name I would say. It might be a short meet. But I guess we will soon meet again.

Aurora: I appreciate the complement but, why would I be meeting you again soon.

[Ace, backing off a bit. Since, it was a bit embarrassing from me to speak in front of the crowd of people who were staring at me, all along while I was speaking with Aurora.]

Ace: You will soon know the answer to your question after couple of minutes. When you start to know about me from others.

Aurora: I see, so what you mean is you are big shot known by everyone present here.

Ace: Who knows. Let the time speak and let it create the miracle. Cause I am thinking and have a strong feeling of colliding again since we are neighbors here.
[Laughs randomly.]

[The small sweet conversation ended between us but both of us didn't realize that we were actually staying close to each other's house at that village.]

Ace: [Still thinking, I guess time will create the path for both of us so that we can meet once again soon. I wonder when that will be. By any chance does she live somewhere here or Is she here just for the occasion just like me.]

Aurora: [Thinking, I wonder who that so sudden speaker who believes on miracle at this era. I guess, I will just wait and see whether his miracle actually happens or not.]

[It was actually mesmerizing moment at that time. I was feeling happy and shy from inside after so long. The amount of happiness which I had back then it can't be expressed through words. I think, it's what people call Love. Hahahahahahaaa. Soon during the evening, I learned that she was staying just beside the house where I was staying with my grandfather. Just being known that I was happy. Again, gathering some courage, I went on the same road from where the house, she is staying can be seen close and clear. And fortunately, I saw her again.]

[Me, trying to start a conversation.]

Ace: What a surprise? I just hoped to meet again but I never thought that it would be this early.

Aurora: Look! Who is speaking? I know that you knowingly came along with an excuse just now.

Ace: And by the way how did you know about, that I came with an excuse of walking on the road just to have a conversation with you?

Aurora: Just now. You just said it yourself.

Ace: You are better at making me predictable than I had expected.

Aurora: All of your excuse and what are you gonna ask or talk about I know. And anyone can read it since those expressions are clearly seen on your face.

Ace: Even if you could see. But could you please let me have a conversation with you because I really want to know more about you. And by time who knows you might also like to have a conversation with me.

Aurora: Excuse me! But I am not here to speak with some random person all of a sudden and I am not here for long. I don't reside here.

Ace: Wow, so nice of you to make me know that since it would be hard to come and meet you here from the plain.

Aurora: (Smiling gently) Flirting. Hmm. But let me make you clear. Flirting won't work. Why would I be meeting you, hmm?

Ace: Who said I was flirting. Like I said it's about time, who knows.

Aurora: Anything you want to speak more about because I don't want to waste my time speaking with you.

[Just then her aunt appeared. If I recall correctly her aunt name was Olivia.]

Aunt Olivia: Woah woah. Let me see, who is flirting at my nephew, since early in the morning to till now.

Ace: Who said I was flirting with her. And is it crime to speak with someone randomly.

Aunt Olivia: I didn't mention about crime here. What I wanted to say is you can speak but be on limit. And I am here to take Aurora inside.

Ace: You can take her. It's not I am eager to know all about her right now, right at this moment. Time has some plan for me and for her.

Aurora: Then I should say pray your time. I am leaving now.

[With being said at that time it was just the heat of the moment I said that but I really want to speak more with her and wanted to spend more time with her. I was consistently thinking about her whole day.]

Another day. Morning.

I was doing my morning walk as usual like how I used to do back at my hometown. But, it was a bit cold there and I started mild running slowly. Just after running for some couple of minutes. I saw someone coming from the opposite side. Later, who would have thought the person would have been Aurora. But this time she spoke, first.

Aurora: What a pleasant surprise. To see Mr. Ace running early in the morning. Did you do something unexpected and you are running far from the village or what?

Ace: (Stopping in front of her.) Umhm. Let me make something clear, this is called jogging not running. And I have a lot of reputation here in this village. I am not someone to commit crimes.

Aurora: Are you being furious, suddenly? Take it lightly Mr. Ace.

Ace: First of all, drop that Mr. from my name and just call me Ace. It feels unpleasant to be called by you like that. I would love to hear only Ace from you.

Aurora: Nah, Nah, maybe some other time.

Ace: But, I didn't expect you to call me out of the blue.

Aurora: From where does this blue came? I just called you casually.

[I stopped running. Both of us. We started walking slowly while having conversation.]

Ace: It might sound crazy but I would like to ask your wechat id. So, that I could speak with you even when I am at my hometown.

Aurora: About that, what are you currently reading?

Ace: I am a Bachelors student. Joined just recently.

Aurora: From which faculty?

Ace: I.T.

Aurora: Then I will give you code of my we-chat account.
Just decode it and add me. It's 139691_(numeral 11).

Ace: Heh! What kind of code is this?

Aurora: It's upto you. Decode this. Hint is it created a word of English. Just then see ya'.

Ace: Okay, Bye. I accept your challenge to decode this.
Later don't forget to accept.

Aurora: Until then, Bye.

[Days passed. I kept on decoding the number. And on the third day. I finally decoded it. I went running to meet Aurora. I searched her for whole day. At last I mustered up the courage and asked Aunt Olivia.]

Ace: Excuse me. Aunt Olivia. Are you there?

Aunt Olivia: Yes, but, who are you?

Ace: I am Ace. The one trying to flirt with Aurora days ago.

Aunt Olivia: Oh, it's you Ace. And why are you here? Who are you searching?

Ace: I am searching for Aurora for whole day but, I don't see her. Can you tell me, where is she?

[After asking Aunt Olivia about her. I got shocked for a certain time there. And left Aunt Olivia's house without saying a word. She told me Aurora had gone back home long ago. If I remember it was, during the time when I met her on the road while jogging. Who had thought it was the last time I am seeing her in the Himalayas.

After some days, I also returned back home with my grandfather. After thinking about the incident again and again every day and being engaged on my work and studies. I forgot about the code which Aurora had given me back then. But, I didn't forget thinking about her.

And after one month of returning back from Himalayas. An unexpected incident occurred where I remembered of Aurora giving me the code. It was when I was having a conversation with a friend on a certain programming language. He asked me about a code. At that time, a sudden stroke hit upon my heart and I remembered of Aurora giving me the code and I had kept it written on notes of my phone.

I had already decoded it before so, it didn't take much time for me to decode it again. And after some time, I finally sent her request on we-chat. It was the first time when I was getting happy to speak with someone. But, things didn't go as expected. It took weeks for Aurora to accept it. And at last, when I was losing my hope. A we-chat notification appeared while I was using my mobile phone. Yes, you guess it right, it was the approval of request from Aurora. Without a second thought to occur, I messaged her immediately.]

Ace: Took you long enough to accept that, Aurora.

Aurora: Look who is talking. I gave you my we-chat id long ago. It was you who took long to send the request.

Ace: It's not like that. Back then, why didn't you tell me that you were returning back home.

Aurora: Oh, should I announce everyone while returning, hmm?

Ace: I don't mean to say like that. But I didn't see any of baggage with you.

Aurora: They were all sent earlier. And I was the only one left. So, I was just walking upto the road.

Ace: Oh, if I had known that I would have left after your bus had arrived.

Aurora: Who stands on a single place for 5 minutes straight. Use your brain sometimes. Mr. Decoder.

Ace: What's with that sudden name? While I was with you the bus didn't appear. And I had some works with my grandfather so, I returned back. I didn't think of you to return back home.

Aurora: Okay, leave that what happened has happened already. Let's change the topic. And on top of that I am inside my college.

Ace: Oh, then I will message you after some days.

Aurora: If that's the case then, Bye.

[And just like that we didn't speak for several days again. I had my examinations coming up internal along with the finals. It took 1 whole month to complete. After the completion, I messaged her again.

A long-awaited conversation was worth it and was way better than expected. We both had a long and nice conversation together. We exchanged some of the details like level of education, hobbies and so on. Just like how others speak I should say but in a better way than how other's had conversation. Even if I was excited to speak with Aurora every time, I don't know how she feels in her case. Her way of speaking was way more mature and understanding than what I had thought. I was happy to speak with her.

Since I was a bit away from social media platforms. I did tell her that despite of wanting to speak and have conversation with her daily. I won't be doing that. I will message her often in weeks and so on. She agreed and was surprised to hear that. She told that it was often rare to see someone not using social media platforms daily, at this era.

Just like that months after months, one year and half passed. I could not muster up the courage to ask her whether we could meet or not. But by Lord Buddha's favour, one day she suddenly messaged me. Cause she never messaged me first.]

Year 2045, March

Aurora: What's up? Mr. anti-social media.

[I wasn't using my phone. Since, I was at work. I saw the message when I returned back home.]

Ace: Oh, sorry. I didn't see your message. You might have got angry but, I was on my work.

Aurora: No problem. About that. I didn't see the time while messaging you.

Ace: I am fine. And how about you? It's unexpected to see you messaging first.

Aurora: Oh, is that so. I am fine too. By the way, I messaged you to confirm whether you will be coming to the Himalayas back to the village where we first met.

Ace: Why? What's the occasion to be there?

Aurora: Does there need to be an occasion to go to your own village, hmm?

Ace: No, but just a habit of asking.

Aurora: I am going there within a month. I just asked whether you could come or not. It's upto you to decide. If you are coming, I will be happy to see you there.

Ace: If that's the case then. I will be coming after all, it's you who is calling.

Aurora: No need to come. If you are not interested. There isn't any force.

Ace: I will come. I will make the arrangement for holiday from my office.

Aurora: What about college?

Ace: There isn't problem in not attending the college for 3-4 days. I guess.

Aurora: Okay, then see you at the Himalayas.

Ace: Okay, sure.

[Just like that. The conversation it ended. After some days, I went to the Himalayas. This time I was alone. I just informed some of my relatives that I was coming. Other than that, no one not even Aurora. I travelled along with the memories of our first meet. How is started speaking with her and so on. It was a wonderful journey. One of my relatives had come to pick me up. It was dark when I reached there so, I didn't meet Aurora that time.

On the morning, I went to meet Aurora. I gave her a surprise visit and some gifts, chocolates, I would say. I was able see the happiness in Aurora's eyes to meet me, clearly. But, there was still one thing bugging me. When I used to express a hint of my love towards her, she used to change the topic. I don't know, why? Guess, I never gonna know that. But, I am happy just to meet her only. We both spoke a lot, went on different places, enjoyed the moments, created some beautiful memories. After some days, it was time for me to return back home. Since, some important works had arrived at the office. My colleagues were waiting for my arrival to complete that.]

Aurora: So, tomorrow morning you are returning back to your hometown.

Ace: Yes, some work appeared all of a sudden and my colleagues are waiting for me to arrive.

Aurora: Won't they be able to do it on their own?

Ace: It requires my presence and my signature. It can't be done from here. But, are you getting angry for the reason that I had to go early.

Aurora: Why would I become angry?

[She said like that but, I was able to sense her anger.]

Ace: Then, what's with the commotion? I came and enjoyed the time after so many months I feel refreshed and energized.

Aurora: Oh, then. Bye Bye. Tomorrow I won't be going to send you off.

Ace: Okay. Bye. See you soon.

[I returned back home. I messaged her that I safely returned just to make sure she doesn't get angry. After some weeks of my arrival, she also returned back her home. Again, the same way of life started where I was busy all day and was barely awake to do my assignment at night. Sometimes, I used to sleep without even doing any activities while returning home.

Life was going smooth. Aurora was getting the hints I wanted to say. Just like old times, we started speaking one in a month or two. Whenever, I gathered courage of confessing her. I wasn't able to. Then, one day I took a deep thinking on why Aurora never seems to agree on being on relation with me. Sometimes, she used to hint me that there was a big reason behind. I guess, it was something bigger and it was better for both of us not to be in relation. We used to meet often but, not for long time.]

Year 2047, January

Just like that 4 years passed from the day when I met Aurora for the first time. I never asked her the reason behind her denial way of hints. And time passed by, we grew apart. I would say. I don't know the reason on why we grew apart. But, the Love towards her was still unwavered and still the same. It was wonderful to spent time and create memories with Aurora. Just like, how we can't capture the wind, we can just feel them and can't make them ours. It was the same condition for me. I wasn't able to make Aurora mine. I was just able to feel the Love of her for me.

Aurora was just like a teacher, who taught me different things. Who make me feel, how Loving someone unconditionally feels. Later, after not speaking with her for months. I didn't know what was happening in her life. I was 25 years old when I heard she got married. That was to be expected. I should say. I was in trauma. I barely remember what happened after that on that day.

Part 4

Date: 25th Sept. 2048. Time: 2200 P.M.

Ace;

[Being drunk. On the rooftop of his house.]

What was incomplete in me? Were there any flaws in my love? Why Aurora? Why? Was it just because I wasn't able to confess my feeling towards you? I was considerate that you must have felt that. What would have happened if you had waited for a bit longer. I know I stopped texting you but, I was busy on my work and studies. I even told you, I wasn't much of a social media addicted person. You would also have messaged me. Was there anything that was stopping you to message me? Why, Aurora? Why? Is my Love going to be unfinished forever in my life? Will it be the ending of my unwavering and unfinished love? Aurora, I gave my all, so that you could feel my Love. But just giving the hints and making you feel wasn't enough. I was stupid I fell in Love with you. Not for 1 year but for 5 years and I don't know for how much long.

If the reason was bigger than us being together than I would like to listen it someday. I don't know when it will be but I am gonna listen it. I will be hearing from heaven even if I die. Just don't forget to tell me. I will be waiting for your answers. I also want to know on how you felt about me? Did you love me or not? I always had a dream of making you my partner for life till the end. I guess it's never gonna get true, now. After all, you are someone else now.

Current time.

Date: 27th Sept. 2064

[Thinking on himself

Oh, that was some wonderful words and expressions from me. It was real. I almost cried while writing that. [cleaning the tears;] It sure bring back memories. Two days have passed since, I started writing this novel and no one has interrupted me till now. Thanks to Ben. He is keeping his promise.]

But then, Ace dies.

At the meantime, Ace had saved a video which got automatically played when Ben entered the room to call him for dinner. Since, Ace was not replying he forcedly entered and was shocked to see the death of Ace. Ace had left a message in that video. A work for his son to do when he reaches the age of 20.

[Dr. Ben looking at the clip and it goes like:]

Year 2064, Age 41 years.

Ace last words:

As I walk through the path where my destination and yours might be different. Even the life might be different from now on. The path where both of our line met will be the best path of my life. I don't know whether I might be able to meet you in my upcoming future. Whether you might have already forgotten me and my words, I spoke while I was around you. Deep in my heart, I know you have already moved on in your life, but here I was unable to step forward in the future without you by my side. I hope you might have happy ending in your life.

Afterall, I fall in Love with the beauty of your heart, your soul. I might not find the same person ever again in my life. But I am happy my heart fell for you. The emotions, the moments will not fade away.

At last, Loving doesn't mean the person we fall for must be with us for our whole life. Sometimes it is meant for sacrifices, which we have to bear with a deep wound in our heart. I just hope to meet you again and spent some of my time with you. Even if it is for seconds I would like to see you smiling one last time.

It might not be this life but on another life, I would like to live with you forever till the end of my life. By the time you meet my son and hear the message, I might have died already. As I told you, the last time when we had spoken on the phone. My dream it became reality after 11 years. Loving you was a wonderful journey for me even if it got unfinished.

I saw the depths of your inspiring love towards me which I guess I would have become happy if only I was able to see you expressing it in your own way. I waited for the correct time which never come for me.

I always wondered whether you felt the same like I felt when we both first met each other. After all the efforts shown by me were you able to have a sensation that I might actually be the one for you. I knew rejection hurts but what hurt me more was the feeling which I was never able to sense, the vibe coming from you.

When I die, come to my coffin once and I would like to hear those exact reasons. I will be listening them from inside my coffin. Aurora, you might not believe since you haven't met my wife yet. She is someone whom you told me to marry. I don't know whether it was a joke made by you or not. But, I married the same person whom you suggested. And her name is: 1 1+8 9 1 - 1991 - ARIA.

Bye. Bye. Aurora. See you in Heaven, I will be waiting for you.

[The chapters dedicated towards Aurora might have ended in the book but the love towards Aurora will be un-wavered.

In between the chapters of 'An Unfinished Love', Ace carry the burden of the unconfessed truth forever wondering what could have been if only he had found the courage to reveal the depths of his affection for Aurora.]
